

1: Ken Downs

16 Banksia st Newborough vic.
P: 03 51261757.

E: ken.downs@bigpond.com

Ken works out of his Studio/Garage at his home in Newborough.

A realist Artist for 24 Years he is inviting the Public to experience the magic he loves so much, that only comes from pigment and water. Ken's artwork will be on display and he's looking forward to meeting and showing his artwork.

2: Mandi Thorpe

28 March Street Newborough
E: mandi_designs@yahoo.com.au
P: 0423 832 057

FB: Open Studios Latrobe

Visit Mandi's cozy Studio and Art Garden, her ceramics include 'Out-there' girls, Goddesses, vulnerable women, mystical creatures, indoor and fun outdoor sculptures. This year Mandi has some new themes inspired from her travels and her busy imagination. She also produces a line of bespoke handmade cups

3: Sharon Anderson

17 Rutherglen Road Newborough
P: 0409 436 268P:

E: artfxpaint@bigpond.com

W: sharonanderson.com.au

FB: Sharon Anderson artist

Sharon has a shop/studio in the shopping strip in Newborough. She is well known for her colourful screenprints and is also an accomplished pastel artist. There will be plenty of artworks on display and Sharon will be demonstrating her pastel drawing throughout the day.

4: Wendy Flack

17 Rutherglen Road NewboroughE:
P: 0407360557

FB: Wendy Flack Artist Printmaker

Life experiences and symbolism form the main focal point of my art. Drawing is the nucleus of my mediums and Mezzotints with their subtle tonal qualities and contrasting darks and lights is a printmaking process that compliments my drawings.

5: Lauren Perkins

10 Guy Street Newborough
P: 0488 172 811

W: laurenperkins.com

Lauren is a contemporary painter (acrylics) and henna artist. Her paintings are whimsical and painted from her imagination. The main theme running through her work is love, hope and bringing joy through art.

6: Carolyn Henry

26 Baillie street Yallourn North
P: 0427 563 246

E:

Award winning Scratchboard artist Carolyn Henry will demonstrate the process of creating a scratchboard piece. You can also see Carolyn's works in the mediums of oil and acrylic paint and pastel.

7: Annabelle Davy

26 Baillie street Yallourn North
E: addavy@outlook.com

Annabelle Davy is a young emerging artist and recent Fine Art graduate who works across a variety of mediums and a range of styles, from abstract to illustration. Drawing inspiration from nature and the self, she develops her practise as a form of self-expression and exploration.

8: Powerworks

Ridge Road Morwell
P: 0411 053 546

E: powerworks@powerworks.net.au

PowerWorks and their volunteers welcomes Latrobe Valley Open Studios to their facility and will be the information 'hub' for Open Studios Latrobe. A cuppa, a display of artists work and information about the location of each artist will be available. The facility is easily accessible from the highway in Morwell – just follow the brown 'Powerworks' signs and the orange flags.

9: Valerie Hibberd

Elizabeth Terrace Studio
3 Elizabeth Terrace, Morwell
P: 0432 702 272

E: elizabeth.terrace@gmail.com

W: ElizabethTerrace.com.au

Valerie is a multi-disciplinary artist. Her latest works are contemporary abstract pieces in Resin, inspired by nature and the ocean. Valerie is also exploring printmaking and invites you to her studio where there will be an interesting variety of woks on display.

10: Bob Pelchen

17 Waratah Drive, Morwell
P: 0419 101 571

E: rpelchen@latrobe.net.au

W: bobpelchen.com.au

Bob has been specialising in watercolour painting for over 40 years and currently works out of his home-based studio. He paints in a realist style, preferring to work "en-plein aire" and so is always being challenged to capture impressions of the light and colour of the many areas he visits . . . local and Australia Wide.

11: Rhonda Hunt

46 Quigley Crescent Churchill
P: 0429 115555

W: faerieswithattitude.com.au

Working from her studio in Churchill, Rhonda is a mixed media and resin artist whose love of color is reflected in her large abstract pieces. As well as wall art, there is a range of smaller functional items, including recycled, resined side tables and trays.

12: Matchbox Gallery

Pip Nikodemski & Marie Ward
Main Street Yinnar
P: 0429 432 896

E: Matchboxgallery@bigpond.com

Pip is a stain glass artist and oil painter who does stain glass classes. Marie works with multiple mediums; clay, drawing and sculpture. They run the Matchbox gallery accommodation with an artist studio behind the premises. There will be artwork on display and Pip and Marie will show you through the gallery and studio.

13: arc Yinnar

19-21 Main Street Yinnar
P: 03 51 631 310

E: arcyinnar@speedweb.com.au

W: www.arcyinnar.org.au

arc Yinnar is a unique centre for creativity and contemporary arts that combines two galleries, a vibrant performance venue, studio spaces for artists, and resource services. arc is the longest artist run initiative in Australia starting here in Yinnar in 1983. Come and visit and see the artists and the latest exhibition.

14: Alvina Bishop-Edwards

At: Morwell Art & Framing
49 Chickereil St Morwell
P: 0429 691 748

E: alvina@aussiebb.com.au

FB: Alvina Bishop-Edwards

Alvina creates artworks using a variety of mediums, most often acrylic and mixed media paintings, in a range of sizes. Her paintings use colour and textures, figures and faces to tell stories about life and environments.

15: Amanda Thompson

Studio at Arc,
Main Street Yinnar
P: 0466 670 817

FB: Amanda Thompson

Amanda has a studio at the unique artist run space, arc Yinnar where she works with the medium of woodcut relief printing. She gains her inspiration from the local industrial landmarks unique to the Latrobe Valley such as the briquette factory. See Amanda at work and view her impressive collection of prints on display.

16: Kate Zizys

Studio at Arc, Main Street Yinnar
E: katezizys@gmail.com

The studio of Kate Zizys, located in Arc Yinnar will be open for you to explore interactive performance, visual audio works and collaborative practice during the Open Studio event this year. Come along and be part of the work. There will also be pictures.

17: Jenny Peterson

Park Road Boolarra
P: 0427 090 545

E: jennypeterson50@gmail.com

W: jennypeterson.net.au

Come and see my etchings! Jenny demonstrates for visitors the traditional etching techniques. Her large display of prints includes botanical, landscape and abstract themes. See also handmade gifts including jewellery, ceramics, scarves and greeting cards

18: Nicole Allen

140 Brewsters Rd, Yinnar South
P: 0416 435 070

E: nicole@nicoleallensculpture.com

W: www.nicoleallensculpture.com

For mankind, art started with the figurative form. First were those mankind could draw or carve. With skill, mankind soon learnt how to re-create them in wood or stone. Nicole re-creates them in Cor10, stainless steel, stone or a combination of all. The human figurative form, as a sculptor, is Nicole's life pursuit. All at a sculpture park, found in Yinnar South.

19: John Abery

380 Thomson Road Hazelwood South
W: johnaberysculptor.com

E: ja.abs@bigpond.com

P: 0429 072 667

John's studio is set in a tranquil rural garden setting, where he produces sculptures of various mediums, but predominantly in wood. He also works with steel, bronze and fibreglass or a combination of them all.

20: Ann Abery

380 Thomson Road Hazelwood South
E: ja.abs@bigpond.com

P: 0427 300 368

Fabric Art has been a dream and passion of Ann's for many years. Being a person who has dabbled in various crafts over many years has given her skills to advance on. The person that inspired with her giftedness and ability is Annemieke Mein. Ann is now given the chance and time to explore and work on skills in fabric art and making a dream reality.

poster design by Sharon Anderson

